Dana Foundation Supports Lectures at FENS Forum

The Dana Foundation again supported two lectures at the virtual 2020 FENS Forum. Carla Shatz presented the EDAB/Max Cowan Lecture, “Synopsis Lost and Found – Developmental Critical Periods and Alzheimer’s disease” on July 13 and on July 15, the EDAB Special Lecture on Neuroethics, “Non-human primate models for neurobiology and biomedicine” was given by Mu-ming Poo with an introduction by Colin Blakemore.

These lectures and many more featuring Alliance members are still available for viewing by registrants on FENS Forum website.

Brain Awareness Week Outreach Grants Program

The Dana Foundation will launch a grants program in October to support Brain Awareness Week (BAW) outreach activities in the US and Canada. The program is modeled on the Foundation's successful FENS and IBRO (now accepting applications) BAW grants programs. Foundation support will be available for BAW activities worldwide, beginning with the 2021 campaign, March 15-21. Learn more in our press release.

WELL BEINGS Launches with Virtual Town Hall

The Dana-supported, national youth mental health campaign, WELL BEINGS, launched at NAMICON 2020 on July 14, with a virtual town hall attended by several thousand people.

Under advisement by mental health professionals and researchers, among them Kay Redfield Jamison and Joshua Gordon, the multi-year campaign includes: a website, wellbeings.org, and social media, sharing youth-focused content; a 24-city tour; and a new Ken Burns documentary, “Hiding in Plain Sight: Our Mental Health Crisis,” scheduled for spring 2022.
